

Privacy notice
on the data management of image and sound recordings made at events of the Józsefváros
Municipality of Budapest Capital VIII. district

The Municipality of Budapest Capital VIII. district Józsefváros may, in certain cases, take and publish photos, audio recordings and videos of organised events on the district's online and offline media platforms. This Privacy Notice is intended to explain the rights and obligations related to the data management activities related to these operations (hereinafter referred to as the "Privacy Notice") and has been prepared in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (hereinafter referred to as the "General Data Protection Regulation" or "GDPR").

This Privacy Notice sets out the rules on the processing of personal data, the rights of persons participating in events involving the taking of images and audio recordings (hereinafter referred to as "data subjects") in relation to data processing, and their rights of redress.

If the image is a portrait of the individual and the focus of the image is not a portrayal of a crowd - of which the individual is a part - and if the natural persons in the image are not public figures, the Data Controller will seek the explicit consent of the data subjects for the creation and publication of the image. In such cases, the Data Controller shall declare the data subject or his/her legal representative on the spot or contact him/her on his/her contact details in connection with the declaration, and shall keep the declaration for 5 years after publication (hereinafter referred to as "Processing 1").

The representation of the persons concerned as part of the crowd, as public figures in photographs and videos (e.g. making a recording of an event to show the atmosphere of the event, the number of people present), the storage and publication of the recordings made by the Municipality for the purpose of creating a wide publicity in local public affairs in a democratic manner, as well as for the purpose of the self-organizing communities of the population, cooperation with these communities, and the possibility of ensuring wide public participation in local public affairs (e.g. a recording of an event to show the atmosphere of the event, the number of people present and the number of interested parties), it is carried out as a processing activity based on the exercise of a public task.

Prior to entry, the Municipality draws attention to the taking of photographs and videos by means of a pictogram and an information board, and publishes detailed information on its website regarding the taking of videos and photographs at events (hereinafter: Data Management 2).

3. Purpose of the processing and scope of the data processed

Data management 1
Name of the data subject, name of the mother and place of birth, the fact of making a declaration in relation to the privacy notice	Identification of the data subject, proof of a legal declaration in relation to the privacy notice

Data Management 1 and Data Management 2
Image and sound recording	To create a broad public sphere in local public affairs in a democratic way, and to ensure the possibility for self-organising communities of the population, cooperation with these communities, and broad public participation in local public affairs

4. Legal basis for processing

Data management 1

The legal basis for the processing of image and sound recording data is the explicit voluntary consent of the data subject, as referred to in Article 6(1)(a) of the General Data Protection Regulation.

The consent given may be withdrawn at any time by the data subject using the contact details specified in point 2, in which case the municipality will delete the data.

The legal basis for the statements made in relation to the privacy notice and the retention of the data recorded in it is the fulfilment of a legal obligation on the controller pursuant to Article 6(1)(c) of the GDPR, as referred to in Article 5(2) of the GDPR

The legal basis for the processing of the data is the performance of a task carried out in the public interest assigned to the data controller pursuant to Article 6(1)(e) of the General Data Protection Regulation, based on Article 2(2) and 6(a) of Act CLXXXIX of 2011 on Local Governments in Hungary.

5. The source of the personal data processed , and the scope of the data not provided by the data subject to the Data Controller

The source of the personal data processed is the data subject. The Controller does not process personal data that it does not collect from the data subject.

The municipality also draws attention to the taking of photos and videos before entering the premises by means of a pictogram and an information board, and publishes detailed information on the taking of videos and photos at events on its website. In case of processing 2, the Data Subject is provided with a zone during the participation in the event which is not included in the recordings made.

6. Recipients and categories of recipients of personal data

In the case of images and audio recordings, the Data Controller will publish the photographs and video recordings that best match the atmosphere of the event and the purposes of the data processing on the public website of the Municipality and on the Facebook and Instagram pages operated by Facebook Ireland Ltd. The Controller will publish photos and videos of events of importance to the District in the District's newspapers and on television.

In this process, it will use as data processors the 100%-owned business entities involved in the event, as well as technicians acting on behalf of the Data Controller.

The municipality will occasionally forward the images and audio recordings to the municipality's 100%-owned business entities, so that these entities can also report on the event or event of district significance on their own media platforms.

7. Duration of processing

Image and sound recordings are selected by the Data Controller after a certain amount of data has been collected (data that are less likely to be used in the future and that do not comply with the purpose limitation principle are deleted), but at the latest for 15 years.

In the case of processing 1, the data subject may withdraw his or her consent to processing at any time during the period up to the deletion of the data at any of the contact details provided in point 2. The controller shall delete the data subject's data within 10 working days of receipt of the request for withdrawal. The right to withdraw consent at any time shall not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out on the basis of consent prior to its withdrawal. In the case of printed press products, the municipality will not be able to destroy the press product already produced even if consent to the publication of the image is withdrawn.

8. Data transfers to third countries - automated decision-making and profiling

No personal data is transferred to third countries and no automated decision-making or profiling takes place during the processing.

9. Rights of the data subject in relation to data processing

9.1. Deadline

The Data Controller shall comply with the data subject's request to exercise his or her rights within a maximum of one month from the date of receipt of the request. The date of receipt of the request shall not count towards the time limit.

If necessary, the Data Controller may, taking into account the complexity of the request and the number of requests, extend this period by a further two months. The Data Controller shall inform the data subject of the extension of the time limit within one month of receipt of the request, stating the reasons for the delay.

9.2. Data subjects' rights in relation to data processing

9.2.1. The data subject has the right to obtain, through the contact details provided in point 1, information from the Controller on whether or not his or her personal data are being processed and, if such processing is taking place, the right to obtain information on which personal data are being processed by the Controller; on what legal basis; for what purpose; for how long; to whom, when, under what law, to which personal data the Controller has given access or transmitted your personal data; the source of your personal data; your rights in relation to the processing; whether your data are being profiled by the Controller or transferred to a third country.

The Controller shall provide a copy of the personal data subject to the processing free of charge for the first time upon the data subject's request, and may charge a reasonable fee based on administrative costs thereafter.

In order to meet data security requirements and to protect the rights of the data subject, the Data Controller is obliged to verify the identity of the data subject and the person who wishes to exercise his or her right of access, and to this end, the provision of information, access to data and the issuing of copies of data are also subject to the identification of the data subject.

9.2.2. The right to rectification

The data subject may request that the Controller amend any of his or her personal data by using the contact details provided in point 1. If the data subject can credibly demonstrate the accuracy of the corrected data, the Controller shall comply with the request within a maximum of one month and shall notify the data subject thereof using the contact details provided by the data subject.

9.2.3. Right to restriction of processing

The data subject may request, through the contact details provided under point 1, that the Controller restricts the processing of his or her personal data (by clearly indicating the restriction and ensuring that the processing is kept separate from other data) where.

contests the accuracy of your personal data (in which case the Controller will limit the processing for the period for which it verifies the accuracy of the personal data);

the data processing is unlawful and the data subject opposes the erasure of the data and requests instead the restriction of their use;

the controller no longer needs the personal data for processing but the data subject requires them for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims; or the data subject has objected to the processing (in which case the restriction applies for the period until it is established whether the legitimate grounds of the controller override those of the data subject).

9.2.4. Right to object

The data subject may object at any time, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, to processing where the processing is carried out by the controller on the basis of Article 6(1)(e) of the General Data Protection Regulation and where he or she considers that the controller is not processing his or her personal data fairly in relation to the purposes for which the personal data are processed as set out in this privacy notice, by using the contact details provided in point 1. In such a case, the Controller must demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for processing the personal data which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

9.2.5. The right to erasure

The data subject may exercise his or her right to erasure without restriction in relation to the processing described in the privacy notice, except for processing required by law.

The data subject may withdraw his or her consent to the processing without time limitation, provided that the withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of the processing prior to the withdrawal.

10. Right to legal redress

If the data subject considers that the Data Controller has infringed the applicable data protection requirements in the processing of his/her personal data, he/she may lodge a complaint with the National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (address: 1055 Budapest, Falk Miksa utca 9-11., postal address: 1363 Budapest, Pf. 9., E-mail: ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu, website: www.naih.hu), or he/she may take the matter to court, which will act out of turn, in order to protect his/her data. In this case, you are free to choose whether to bring an action before the competent court in the place of residence (permanent address) or the place of stay (temporary address) or the place where the Data Controller is established. You can find the court of your domicile or residence at <http://birosag.hu/ugyfelkapcsolati-portal/birosag-kereso>. The Metropolitan Court of Budapest has jurisdiction over the lawsuit according to the seat of the Data Controller.
