on data processing related to the questionnaires of the Józsefváros Municipality of Budapest Capital VIII. district related to social consultation processes

The Municipality of Józsefváros District VIII of Budapest (hereinafter referred to as the Municipality) and the Mayor's Office of Józsefváros District VIII of Budapest (hereinafter referred to as the Mayor's Office) (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Joint Data Controllers) shall initiate a social consultation on a number of issues, by means of questionnaires, to assess the community's opinion on issues affecting the community (hereinafter referred to as the Social Consultation). As a general rule, the Social Consultation is anonymous, but the Joint Controllers provide the opportunity for respondents to request feedback from the Joint Controllers on the subject matter of the questionnaire if any changes are made. To do so, the questionnaire respondent may provide their email address to the Joint Controllers.

The information notice on data processing in relation to the social consultation (hereinafter referred to as the "Data Processing Notice") is based on the Directive of the European Parliament and of the Council of 2016 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC. Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data (hereinafter referred to as the General Data Protection Regulation) (hereinafter referred to as the GDPR) and contains the rules on the processing of personal data, the rights of the person seeking feedback on the social consultation (hereinafter collectively referred to as the data subject) in relation to data processing and the legal remedies available to data subjects.

3. Purpose of the processing and scope of the data processed

The purpose of the processing of the email address is to provide feedback to the data subject on the social consultation. In addition to the email address, the fact and date of the consent to the processing will be recorded as personal data relating to the data subject by the Joint Controllers for accountability purposes.

4. Legal basis for processing

The legal basis for the processing of the data is the explicit voluntary consent of the data subject to the processing of his or her personal data, as referred to in Article 6(1)(a) of the General Data Protection Regulation.

The legal basis for the retention of the legal declarations relating to the privacy notice is the fulfilment of a legal obligation on the controller pursuant to Article 6(1)(c) of the GDPR, as referred to in Article 5(2) of the GDPR.

5. The source of the personal data processed, and the scope of the data not provided by the data subject to the Joint Controllers

The source of the personal data processed is the data subject. The Joint Controllers do not process personal data that are not collected from the data subject.

6. Recipients and categories of recipients of personal data

Joint Controllers do not transfer the personal data processed outside their organisation to third parties.

7. Duration of processing

The Joint Controllers shall process the personal data of the data subjects at the latest until the time of sending the last information letter on the social consultation topic concerned. Data subjects have the possibility to withdraw their consent by sending an e-mail to reszvetel@jozsefvaros.hu or by clicking on the link in the footer of the information letter sent. In the case of requests sent by e-mail, the Joint Controller will delete the data subject's data within 10 working days of receipt.

8. Allocation of rights to data processing, access to data Between Joint Controllers

As a general rule, data processing is carried out by the department of the Mayor's Office to which the subject of the social consultation belongs. The Mayor's Office is authorised to deal with cases of infringement and incidents. On a case-by-case basis, if the decision related to the social consultation has to be taken by the Representative Body of the Municipality of Budapest Capital VIII. district Józsefváros, the Municipality is entitled to act on behalf of the Joint Data Controllers.

9. Data transfers to third countries - automated decision-making and profiling

No personal data is transferred to third countries and no automated decision-making or profiling takes place.

10. Rights of the data subject in relation to data processing

10.1. Deadline

The Joint Controllers shall comply with the data subject's request to exercise his or her rights within a maximum of one month from the date of receipt of the request. The date of receipt of the request shall not count towards the time limit.

The Joint Controllers may, if necessary, and taking into account the complexity of the request and the number of requests, extend this time limit by a further two months. The Joint Controllers shall inform the data subject of the extension of the time limit within one month of receipt of the request, stating the reasons for the delay.

10.2. Right of access, data transfers to third countries

The data subject shall have the right to request the 1. to obtain from the Joint Controllers, through the contact details provided in point 1, information as to whether or not his or her personal data are being processed and, if such processing is taking place, the right to know which personal data are being processed by the Joint Controllers; on what legal basis; for what purpose; for how long; to whom, when, under what law, to which personal data have been disclosed or transferred by the Joint Controllers; from what source your personal data originate; what rights you have in relation to the processing; whether your data are being profiled by the Joint Controllers or transferred to a third country.

The Joint Controllers shall provide a copy of the personal data subject to the processing free of charge for the first time upon the data subject's request, and may charge a reasonable fee based on administrative costs thereafter.

In order to ensure data security and to protect the rights of the data subject, the Joint Controllers are obliged to verify the identity of the data subject and the identity of the person who wishes to exercise the right of access, and to this end, the provision of information, access to data or the issuing of copies of data is subject to the identification of the data subject.

10.3. The right to rectification

The data subject may request that the Joint Controllers modify any of his or her personal data through the contact details provided in point 1. If the data subject can credibly demonstrate the accuracy of the corrected data, the Joint Controllers shall comply with the request within a maximum of one month and shall notify the data subject thereof using the contact details provided by the data subject.

10.4. Right to restriction of processing

The data subject may request, through the contact details provided in point 1, that the processing of his or her personal data be restricted by the Joint Controllers (by clearly indicating the restriction of processing and ensuring that it is kept separate from other data) where.

contests the accuracy of his or her personal data (in which case the Joint Controllers will limit the processing for the time necessary to verify the accuracy of the personal data);

the data processing is unlawful and the data subject opposes the erasure of the data and requests instead the restriction of their use;

the Joint Controllers no longer need the personal data for the purposes of processing, but the data subject requires them for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims; or the data subject has objected to the processing (in which case the restriction applies for the period until it is established whether the legitimate grounds of the Joint Controllers prevail over the data subject's legitimate grounds).

10.5. The right to erasure

The data subject may exercise his or her right to erasure without restriction in relation to the processing described in the privacy notice, except for processing required by law. The data subject may withdraw his or her consent to the processing without time limitation, provided that the withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of the processing prior to the withdrawal.

10.6. Right to legal redress

If the data subject considers that the Joint Controllers have infringed the applicable data protection requirements in the processing of his or her personal data, he or she may lodge a complaint with the National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (address: 1055 Budapest, Falk Miksa utca 9-11., postal address: 1363 Budapest, Pf. 9., E-mail: ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu, website: www.naih.hu), or may take the matter to court, which will act out of turn, in order to protect his or her data. In this case, you are free to choose whether to bring your action before the competent court in your place of residence (permanent address) or domicile (temporary address) or the court of the place where the Joint Controllers have their headquarters. You can find the court of your domicile or residence at <http://birosag.hu/ugyfelkapcsolati-portal/birosag-kereso>.

The Court of Budapest (Fővárosi Bíróság) has jurisdiction over the lawsuit according to the seat of the Joint Controllers.
